THE PLOT – EX6 6JL

The plot comprises a rectangular shaped parcel of amenity land currently laid to grass, extending to approximately 0.0332 hectares / 0.08 acres with defined post and wire boundaries. Located on the village fringe the plot has road frontage with a pedestrian gate, beyond which it falls very gently south to north offering far reaching beautiful countryside views. Either side of the plot is grassed amenity land, to the north is a field.

Please note that no drawings other than the plot location plan shown on this sales brochure, are available.

The plot is located on the east fringe of Cheriton Bishop, approximately 250 meters from the village centre.

CHERITON BISHOP

Cheriton Bishop is situated on the north eastern edge Dartmoor National Park. The village has a very active community with a local shop and post office, doctors surgery, primary school and pre-school, The Old Thatch Inn and Woodleigh Coach House cafe, church, chapel and two village halls, and several flourishing societies and clubs.

The A30 is just a few minutes away, linking the cathedral and county capital city of Exeter c.11 miles to the east (M5 connection and Exeter Airport) and the popular market town of Okehampton “The Gateway to Cornwall” c.13 miles to the west.
